Port Orford-Langlois school board names finalist for superintendent

The Port Orford-Langlois school board announces finalist for further consideration to be the next superintendent for the Port Orford-Langlois school district.

Aaron Miller

From 2014 until he retired in 2022, Mr. Aaron Miller was the superintendent of the Vernonia school district. He was the elementary principal in the same district from 2005 to 2019. Mr. Miller is currently an integration coach with the Linn-Benton-Lincoln education service district (LBL ESD) in Albany, Oregon. Prior to becoming an administrator, he was an elementary school teacher in Scio for thirteen years. Mr. Miller received his Master of Arts degree in Elementary Education from Oregon State University.

Mr. Miller has been invited for a "Finalist Forum" on Wednesday, March 1st. At that time, staff, students, and members of the community will have an opportunity to meet the candidate. The "meet and greet" will be held from 6:00 – 7:00 pm at Driftwood Elementary. Comment cards will be provided for participants to share thoughts with the school board.
